

ASEE 2016 Conference & Exposition Continuing Professional Development Division Schedule

Sunday, June 26

- 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, CPDD Executive Board Meeting, U210, New Orleans Convention Center, 236
- 4:15 PM to 5:45 PM, ASEE Division Mixer, U657, New Orleans Convention Center, La Nouvelle Ballroom

Monday, June 27

- 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM , CIEC Board Meeting , M311, New Orleans Convention Center, 236
- 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM, Faculty Developers on Faculty Development: Join the Conversation, M510, New Orleans Convention Center, 343
This “birds of a feather” session address the engineering faculty development community’s needs for cohesiveness, collaboration, and emergent advancements, and seeks to foster a community of practice around higher education engineering faculty development. This will be an open-floor discussion involving all participants to better gain an understanding of the landscape of engineering faculty development and teaching/learning center support.

Tuesday, June 28

- 7:00 AM to 8:30 AM, CPDD Faculty Breakfast, T110, Cotton Mill Room, Hampton
An excellent networking event for faculty, staff and industry interested in addressing the professional development needs of practicing engineers. Plus a free breakfast!! (Free Ticketed Event)
- CPDD Technical Sessions, New Orleans Convention Center, 269 for all sessions,
- 1:15 PM to 2:45 PM, Pedagogical Considerations for Teaching Engineering Professionals, T410, New Orleans Convention Center, 269
  - 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM, Focus on Faculty Development, T510, New Orleans Convention Center, 269
  - 4:45 PM to 6:15 PM, The Intersection of Higher Ed and Industry, T610, New Orleans Convention Center, 269

Wednesday, June 29

- 9:45 AM to 11:10 AM, Listening and Negotiating , W251, New Orleans Convention Center, 262, CO-SPONSORED
Panel discussion focused on negotiation, with an emphasis on providing practical ideas and strategies relevant to academic professionals at both entry- and mid-career levels who seek career opportunities
- 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM, CPDD Networking Luncheon, W310, New Orleans Convention Center, 241, Ticketed Event
Networking lunch for all individuals interested in continuing engineering education, technical workforce development, effective pedagogical approaches for adults, and professional development of faculty and technical professionals.

Visit <http://cpd.asee.org/>

Technical Sessions and Papers
New Orleans Convention Center, 269 for all sessions

Pedagogical Considerations for Teaching Engineering Professionals Tuesday 1:15 – 2:45

1. Using Multi-Image Presentations to Enhance Continuing Engineering Education ID 15423
2. Piloting Accessible Engineering Education Online ID 16892
3. Using a Blended Online Program to Teach Professionals Innovation Skills and Promote Peer Interaction ID 15906
4. Increasing Learner Engagement in Online Learning through Use of Interactive Feedback – Results of a Pilot Study ID 14705

Focus on Faculty Development Tuesday 3:00 – 4:30

1. Examining effect of goal clarity on faculty's performance ID 14922
2. Talking "faculty development" with engineering educators, then talking "engineering education" with faculty developers: A collaborative reflection on working across communities ID 16167
3. Building Community for Teaching Faculty ID 16915

The Intersection of Higher Ed and Industry Tuesday 4:45 – 6:15

1. Developing a Behavior-Based Rubric for Assessing Professional Skills During Hiring ID 16091
2. Are industrial organizations really hiring fresh graduates with lifelong learning skills? ID 16172
3. A Return on Investment Force Multiplier of an Entrepreneurial Administrative Organization for Professional Studies ID 14379
4. A Tier 1 Research University Study of Fee-Based Corporate Students and Their Representative Business/Industry Organizations ID 14381
5. Industry Certification Program in Project Management ID 15460